Inspiring a New Generation of Nonprofit Leaders

On June 10th, Craigslist Foundation will produce its 1st annual New York Nonprofit Boot Camp. This community effort aims to educate and empower the next generation of nonprofit leaders and social entrepreneurs, connecting them with valuable industry resources, peers and potential supporters.

In 2005, Craigslist Foundation's 2nd annual Nonprofit Boot Camp in San Francisco attracted over 1,500 emerging nonprofit leaders, social entrepreneurs and supporters, receiving a 98% approval rating from attendees. Now the largest nonprofit gathering in the Bay Area, in 2006 Nonprofit Boot Camp is expanding its reach and impact to the New York Tri-State nonprofit community.

2006 New York delegates will have the opportunity to choose between 4 Educational Tracks:

- Fundraising
- Nonprofit Basics
- Social Entrepreneurship
- IT/Technology

Immediately following Nonprofit Boot Camp, all graduates are invited to the Networking Reception. The Reception will connect Boot Camp graduates with fellow attendees, exhibitors, partners and sponsors, as well as more than 100 nonprofit, political, business and community leaders. Guests will be treated to complimentary cocktails and hors d'oeuvres, as well as outstanding entertainment from leading arts nonprofits.

Nonprofit Boot Camp Highlights:

- 450 emerging nonprofit leaders and social entrepreneurs, the majority in founding or leadership roles
- A choice of 12 seminars and interactive workshops on how to start and run a nonprofit or social enterprise
- 2 dynamic keynotes, including Ami Dar, Executive Director of Action Without Borders/Idealist.org
- The involvement of leading local and national nonprofit support organizations as track co-presenters
- An Exhibit Hall featuring organizations that serve nonprofits and social enterprises
- Community Lounge, featuring Career Counseling and Ask the Experts
- Networking Reception with complimentary hors d'oeuvres, cocktails and entertainment
- Eco-friendly event

Thanks to the generous support of our sponsors and partners, Nonprofit Boot Camp is made available to delegates for just $50 per person, including all meals, complete access to Boot Camp and the Networking Reception.

ABOUT CRAIGSLIST FOUNDATION

Founded in 2000 by Craig Newmark and others, Craigslist Foundation (www.craigslistfoundation.org) is a publicly supported, non-endowed 501(c)3 operating foundation (i.e. not a grantmaking institution). Just as craigslist.org is about ‘people helping people’ by facilitating online connections, Craigslist Foundation creates community in the nonprofit arena by ‘helping people help’, regardless of cause or sector. We are uniquely positioned to support nonprofits by providing free and low cost education opportunities to emerging nonprofit leaders and social entrepreneurs, thereby fulfilling our mission of “Providing knowledge, resources and visibility to the next generation of nonprofit leaders.”

ABOUT CRAIGSLIST

If you haven’t already heard of craigslist (www.craigslist.org), just ask any New Yorker to tell you how this online bulletin board has changed their lives. Craigslist has become the city’s lifeblood for interpersonal communication. It is now one of the ten most visited web sites on the Internet and the online community of cities receives over 4 billion page views per month from users across the world.
